

Top-up Criteria in 2024- Romania

- a student who benefits from a social scholarship or who qualifies/meets the conditions to benefit from a social scholarship granted by the higher education institution where the student is enrolled, according to an order of the Ministry of Education;
- a student who is an orphan of a parent or both parents;
- a student who comes from a single-parent family (due to death, disappearance, incarceration of the other parent or non-recognition through the birth certificate);
- a student in the category of „first student in the family“ (meaning a student who does not already have a bachelor’s degree, whose parents did not obtain a university degree, but may have brothers/sisters who are already students/have already graduated from a university);
- a person with a disability (which includes physical, mental, intellectual or sensory impairments) or health problems (which includes serious illness, chronic illness or any other condition related to physical or mental health that prevents a person from participating in the program);
- a person whose family did not achieve an average net monthly income per family member higher than the minimum net basic salary for the economy in the 12 months before the submission of supporting documents;
- a person with sole parent status (due to death, disappearance, incarceration of the other parent or non-recognition by birth certificate);
- a person of Roma ethnicity;
- a person with refugee status.