

Cypriot National Agency (top-up criteria for 2025):

- physical, mental and psychological disabilities
- physical and mental health issues, serious illnesses, or chronic illnesses, leading to disability
- a low socio-economic background
- an immigrant or refugee background
- who are children of single-parent or large families and have been approved to receive the Single-Parent Family Allowance and the Child Allowance for families with three children or more, respectively
- who are parents themselves and fall into the category of people with a low socio-economic background
- who come from rural, underdeveloped or remote areas
- who come from rural families monitored by Social Welfare Services and children in care
- with learning disabilities
- who are parents or have careers, not included in the categories above, and cannot be absent for a long-term period